C8 Journey is a unique grass roots not for profit organization dedicated to providing a platform for social change through inner growth. We believe that everyone has the power to change the world and that each is unique and exceptional.

Bounce is C8's first Project and is a new Youth Mentoring Program with the aim of empowering Refugee Youth as well as learning from them to further advocate issues around them. C8's second project is The Food Bank, which will centre around addressing food security issues In Melbourne in a sustainable way.

We are currently seeking a Grant Officer to join our dynamic team in 2012
