C8 Journey is a unique grass roots not for profit organization dedicated to providing a platform for social change through inner growth. We believe that everyone has the power to change the world and that each is unique and exceptional.

C8 ENGAGEMENT OFFICER

This exciting role will include helping our C8 team get organised. We need a warm personality that takes pride in organising, creating lists, emailing , creating our monthly meeting events and improving our internal communication! The role would only involve 1-2 hours a week and would make an amazing impact to the smooth functioning of our team. We have some exciting ideas to put a bit of fun into our meetings and we need a lovely volunteer to help us.

The successful candidate will have a range of skills and experience which may include

- 1.Understanding of google applications such as google calender and facebook as social media platform to keep connected to our volunteers.
- 2.Demonstrated some understanding of Non for profit sector and community organizations
- 3.Strong planning, organisation and management skills
- 4.Strong interpersonal skills.
- 5.Excellent verbal communication skills for different purposes and audiences
- 6.Demonstrated ability and experience in working both autonomously and as a team

If you like to explore and discover, think outside the box and be innovative and If you want to contribute to making a sustainable difference to the community, please forward your resume to Anjana.
